Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Important Correspondence: Friendly Discussion of Party Politics in 1860-1 We think the letters will interest our readers, as they come from two gentlemen well known in the State, who represent the two opposite party principles, which have been the point of contest for seventy years. Steubenville, Nov. 19, 1860. Dear Sir: I listened with much interest to your address in this town on the 1st inst., as I always have done to your well considered arguments on any subject, so different from the mere rhapsody and declamation with which most partisan speakers on all sides entertain their audiences. Our National affairs surely have enough of sound philosophical principles in their elementary substance to pay a thinking man richly for searching out and developing them for the earnest instruction and enlightenment of his less favored fellow citizens, instead of entangling them in sophistries or blinding their judgments and substituting passion by ringing the changes on party names which once had a definite idea attached to them, now long since passed away, whilst the names are used...
