Lucifer Resplendent

By Marcus E Rian

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 211 pages. LuciferWalker fails to protect animals or the earth. When Walkers violent actions have the opposite effectincreased destructionhe leaves to start over. He turns to religion to change people. Through his own radical church, he renounces violence and tries to persuade. He outlines a new mythology of the earth in his sermons. In spite of the smallness of his successes, he attracts the attention of traditional churches and law enforcement agencies. Catholic priests try to exorcise him. After a violent confrontation with the law, he flees eastward, crippled and powerless. Walker establishes himself a third time. He learns to be slow and contemplative. Having discovered his identity and its contradiction, he finds reconciliation. He explores the science of light and makes a holographic device for recording movies. He creates wealth. He becomes content to set an example by living well. Through circumstances and friends, though, he is lead to try once more to change people. He seeks a political office to legislate behavior, rather than to force or persuade it. His platform is based on reason; he proposes rational limits to development and new ways of sharing resources. He identifies with a local place...
