He entered to pray, and soon fell asleep. On awaking toward daybreak, he noticed above the altar a painted window. He felt indignant, and said to himself: What a miserable dauber, who has spoiled the window by such coarse and dark colors! Only a blind or an insane man would paint a window in that style. By and by the warm and bright sun arose. The pilgrim looked again at the window. Oh, what a wondrous change! How the colors glowed like purple and gold in the bright sunshine! He saw a beautiful painting tenderly expressive, so fresh, so life-like! It represented the burning bush glowing with celestial light. There was Moses prostrate on the ground; there, in the green meadow, were the snow-white sheep, and over all was the clear blue sky. The pilgrim's soul was filled with wonder and delight. An inner voice whispered to him: God's dealings with the world often seem to short-sighted man quite dark and unintelligible. But the first ray of the eternal Sun on the day of doom shall show to all how wise and just and loving is God in all his works. This fault-finding pilgrim represents those who easily search into matters too high, into the hidden ways and secret judgments of God.
